A modern classic, Einstein's Dreams is a fictional collage of stories dreamed by Albert Einstein in 1905, about time, relativity the defiant but sensitive young genius is creating his theory of relativity, a new conception of time, he imagines many possible time is circular, so that people are fated to repeat triumphs and failures over and over. In another, there is a place where time is visited by lovers and parents clinging to their children. In another, time is a nightingale, sometimes trapped by a bell jar. Now in thirty languages, Einstein's Dreams has inspired playwrights, dancers, musicians, and painters all over the world. In poetic vigor explores the connections between science and art, the process of creativity, and ultimately the fragility of human existence. When Mary-Kate gets the lead role in the school play, Ashley is very excited for her, until she discovers that Mary-Kate will have Lambert, who is not only the leading man, but also Ashley's crush.

NurtureShock

Einstein's Dreams

Twins Mary-Kate and Ashley meet new friends while on filming a movie on location in Utah and Nevada, and one friendship leads to romance while the other leads to trouble.

In a world of modern, involved, caring parents, why are so many kids aggressive and cruel? Where is intelligence hidden in the brain, and why does that matter? Why do cross-racial friendships decrease in schools that are more integrated? If 98% of kids think lying is morally wrong, then why do 98% of kids lie? What's the single most important thing that helps infants learn language? NurtureShock is a groundbreaking collaboration between award-winning science journalists Po Bronson and Ashley Merryman. They argue that when it comes to children, we've mistaken good intentions for good ideas. With impeccable storytelling and razor-sharp analysis, they demonstrate that many of modern society's strategies for nurturing children are in fact backfiring--because key twists in the science have been overlooked. Nothing like a parenting manual, the authors' work is an insightful exploration of themes and issues that transcend children's (and adults') lives.
